Benjamin and Sidna Ann Crews Runner have more decedents buried in Mt. Zion Cemetery than any other family. Benjamin and Sidna are not listed as charter members of Mt. Zion. Sidna Ann died in 1862 only ten years after Mt. Zion was founded. There were only twelve marked graves when she was buried. Benjamin and Sidna Ann had eight children: Granville Washington (m) Susan Richards, Harriate Etta (m) B.F.L. Miller, Sarah Ann, (m) James A. Reeves, William M. (m) Sallie Edington, Mary Jane (m) Calvin Keown, Susan Hester (grandmother of Cletis Miller and great-grandmother of Georgia Eadens)(m) Alex Keown, Luisa Francis (m) Henry Clay Stahl, Emily (m) Alfred Taylor. Emily is only child not buried in M.Z.C. Names of decedents of Benjamin and Sidna buried at M.Z.C. include: Mahan, Whalin, Hightower, Shields, Miller, Reeves, Sandidge, Doyle, Keown, Taylor, and Stahl.

Mrs. Okie Pearl McGinnis is the only one buried in Mt. Zion Cemetery that lived to be one hundred (100) years old. Born 12 January 1895 - died 24 January 1995 (100 years and 12 days). Married Arch Cooper McGinnis, also buried in M.Z. C.

Mt. Zion Cemetery and church building located about 15 miles from Bowling Green, Kentucky. Approximately 3 miles from the Richardsville water tower on Greencastle-Mt. Zion Road overlooking a high bluff along Barren River. There are 327graves in cemetery more or less as some graves may not be marked and some are only depressions in the soil. This listing of those buried in Mt. Zion Cemetery begins on the east side with Row One, G1(with grave number being two graves if double stone) and continuing on toward church building ending behind church G#329.

Dick and Francis McClung are said to be negro slaves who worked for Mr. Brown

Mr. William Brown and his wife, Mary, were very influential and prosperous in the community. They had one son, William Brown Jr., "Billy" as he was called in the community. Mr. Brown was very instrumental in the building of Swan Creek Church of Christ, October 11, 1852, later changed to Mt. Zion Church of Christ. William and Mary were charter members of the church at this time. Mr. Brown donated three acres of land to be used for worship and a cemetery.

David A. Meredith, father of Mrs. Felia Cherry and great-grandfather of Carolyn Basham.

Mt. Zion Cemetery and church building are built on land donated by William Brown who is also buried in cemetery (R16--#201) and was partly or completely built by slave labor, owned by Mr. Brown. Some of these slaves are buried in the cemetery, also. The cemetery is located on Mt. Zion Road approximately three (3) miles form the Richardsville water tower. There are more than three hundred (300) graves in the cemetery. However, many are nameless and marked only with initials or fieldstones. Some are just depressions in the soil. Let it be noted that Benjamin and Sidney Runner have more decendants buried in Mt. Zion Cemetery than any other family. Jane Foster 's grave is earliest marked in cemetery. (1856) Mrs. Oka McGinnis only one buried in cemetery that lived to be one hundred years old.

This alphabetical listing begins on the east side of the cemetery as you come up the hill with first grave reading (r1--#1) and continues by row toward church building ending at back of the church #327.
